Family Division
LC No. 98-046535-NA

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent-appellant appeals by right from the family court's order terminating her parental rights to the minor children under MCL 712A.19b(3)(c)(i), (g) and (j). We affirm.

The trial court did not clearly err in finding that the statutory grounds for termination were established by clear and convincing evidence. MCR 5.974(I); In re Miller, 433 Mich 331, 337; 445 NW2d 161 (1989). Further, because at least one ground for termination was established, the court was required to terminate respondent-appellant's parental rights unless the court found that termination was clearly not in the children's best interests. MCL 712A.19b(5); In re Trejo, 462 Mich 341, 364-365; 612 NW2d 407 (2000). The court's finding regarding the children's best interest was not clearly erroneous. Trejo supra. Thus, the family court did not err in terminating respondent-appellant's parental rights to the children.

We affirm.
