Shiawassee Circuit Court

Family Division

LC No. 98-008541-NA

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent appeals as of right from the trial court order terminating her parental rights to the minor children under MCL 712A.19b(3)(b)(ii) and (g). We affirm. This case is being decided without oral argument pursuant to MCR 7.214(E).

First, we reject respondent's claim that the trial court improperly terminated her parental rights for reasons not alleged in the petition or supported by evidence presented during the termination hearing. Even if the trial court inappropriately considered respondent's romantic relationships, we reject respondent's due process claim because the petition adequately informed respondent of the statutory bases and the specific allegations of sexual abuse that formed the factual basis upon which termination was both sought and ordered. In re Perry, 193 Mich App 648, 651; 484 NW2d 768 (1992).

Respondent also claims that the evidence was insufficient to support termination of her parental rights to the children. We disagree. This Court reviews for clear error both the trial court's decision that statutory grounds for terminating parental rights were proven by clear and convincing evidence and its decision regarding the children's best interests. MCR 5.974(I); In re Trejo, 462 Mich 341, 356-357; 612 NW2d 407 (2000). We find that the trial court did not clearly err in finding that the statutory grounds for termination were established by clear and convincing evidence. Furthermore, considered in its entirety, the evidence did not show that termination of respondent's parental rights was clearly not in the children's best interests. Therefore, the trial court did not err in terminating respondent's parental rights.
