Family Division

LC No. 90-021037-NA

Before: Sawyer, P.J., and O'Connell and Zahra, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent-appellant appeals as of right from the order terminating her parental rights to the minor children pursuant to MCL 712A.19b(3)(g), (i), (j) and (m). This matter is being decided without oral argument pursuant to MCR 7.214(E). We affirm.

The trial court did not clearly err in finding that subsections 19b(3)(g) and (j) were established by clear and convincing evidence. MCR 5.974(I), In re Miller, 433 Mich 331, 337; 445 NW2d 161 (1989). Termination was warranted by respondent-appellant's irresponsible behavior since her release from prison, including her failure to send the children to school. Because the evidence did not show that termination of respondent-appellant's parental rights was clearly not in the children's best interests, the trial court did not err in terminating her parental rights. MCL 712A.19b(5); In re Trejo, 462 Mich 341, 356-357; 612 NW2d 407 (2000).

Respondent-appellant raises issues concerning the trial court's application of subsections 19b(3)(i) and (m). However, we need not address these issues because the trial court is required only to find grounds for termination under one statutory provision. Sours, supra 632. Because termination was warranted under subsections 19b(3)(g) and (j), respondent-appellant's effort to raise arguments about the other subsections is futile.

Affirmed.
