2	Defendant appeals the district court's adverse decision in this case. We issued
3	a notice of proposed summary disposition proposing to affirm. That notice was mailed
4	to the address provided to this Court by Defendant. We then issued an amended notice
5	and mailed that notice to the same address. Both mailings were returned to this Court
6	unopened. We note that it is Defendant's responsibility to provide this Court with a 7	proper address where he may be served with notices and other documents issued by 8	this Court. The time for filing a memorandum in opposition to our notices of proposed
9	summary disposition has expired. Therefore, for the reasons stated in those notices,
10	we affirm.
