Before Armstrong, Presiding Judge, and Nakamoto, Judge, and Egan, Judge.

PER CURIAM

Reversed.

1 PER CURIAM.

2 Appellant seeks reversal of a judgment committing her as a mentally ill
3 person for a period not to exceed 180 days. ORS 426.130. In her first assignment of 4 error, she contends that the state failed to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that,
5 because of a mental disorder, she is unable to provide for her basic personal needs. ORS
6 426.005(1)(e). The state concedes that the evidence is legally insufficient to support the 7 involuntary commitment and that the judgment should be reversed. We agree, accept the 8 state's concession, and reverse on that basis. Accordingly, we do not address appellant's
9 other assignment of error, in which she argues that the trial court erred in not allowing 10 her to testify at the commitment hearing.

11 Reversed.
