8. On February 16, 2016, Respondent appeared before the Honorable Eleni Dimitriou Geishauser on Respondent's Motion to Withdraw as Counsel (the "Motion"). The Court denied Respondent's Motion, told Respondent that he would be allowed to withdraw if another attorney entered an appearance as counsel for Mr. Walters and instructed Respondent to appear for the jury trial on March 29, 2016.

9. On March 28, 2016, Respondent had a telephone conversation with Judge Geishauser's law clerk. Respondent told the law clerk that he had a conflict but did not provide any details or explanation.

10. The law clerk told Respondent to file a motion and to appear in Judge Geishauser's courtroom on March 29, 2016.

11. Instead of filing a new motion, Respondent renewed the Motion.

12. On March 29, 2016, Judge Geishauser, the assistant district attorney, the jury panel, and Mr. Walters assembled in the courtroom for jury selection and the trial.

13. Respondent did not notify the Court, the Commonwealth or Mr. Walters that he would not attend jury selection and the trial.

14. The Court waited until the luncheon recess for Respondent to arrive before appointing stand-by counsel to assist Mr. Walters.

15. At 4 p.m., on March 29, 2016, Judge Geishauser received a telephone call from the Honorable Barry C. Dozor, a judge on the Delaware County Court of Common Pleas, about the reason Respondent had failed to appear for Mr. Walters' trial.

16. Judge Dozor explained to Judge Geishauser that Respondent had been attached for a trial since February 1, 2016, in a matter which began in Judge Dozor's courtroom on March 29, 2016.

17. On March 30, 2016, the jury found Mr. Walters guilty of the more serious charge of attempting to elude an arresting officer, but not guilty of DUI.

19. On April 1, 2016, Respondent and his counsel appeared before Judge Geishauser for a contempt hearing.

20. During the contempt hearing, Judge Geishauser questioned Respondent's veracity and explained to Respondent that she was upset by his failure to understand the consequences of: disregarding the Court's directive on February 16, 2016 to Respondent to appear for Mr. Walters' trial on March 29, 2016; Respondent's failure to appear for trial without notice; the impact upon the Berks County Court; failing to inform the Court about Respondent's trial attachment in the Delaware County Court of Common Pleas; failing to appear for court proceedings before the trial on March 29, 2016; and taking procedural short-cuts by requesting continuances by telephone and facsimile instead of following the Court's motion practice.

21. The Court found Respondent guilty of one count of Criminal Contempt under 42 Pa.C.S. § 5947§F.

22. The Court sentenced Respondent to pay a fine of $1,000.00 and to reimburse the county for legal fees of $1,500.00 incurred to provide stand-by counsel to Mr. Walters. The Court ordered that the fine of $2,500.00, was to be paid within 30 days.

23. On May 3, 2016, Respondent filed a Motion for Supersedeas and a Notice of Appeal, Com. v. Kevin M. Wray, 715 MDA 2016, Superior Court (the "Appeal").

25. By Order dated August 30, 2016, the Superior Court granted Respondent's second Application for Extension of Time to File a Brief and Reproduced Record until September 26, 2016.

A. RPC 1.1, states that "a lawyer shall provide competent representation to a client. Competent representation requires the legal knowledge, skill, thoroughness and preparation reasonably necessary for the representation."

B. RPC 1.3, states that "a lawyer shall act with reasonable diligence and promptness in representing a client."

C. RPC 1.4(a)(3), states that "a lawyer shall keep the client reasonably informed about the status of the matter."

D. RPC 1.4(a)(4), states that "a lawyer shall promptly comply with reasonable requests for information."

E. RPC 1.5(b), states that "when the lawyer has not regularly represented the client, the basis or rate of the fee shall be communicated to the client, in writing, before or within a reasonable time after commencing the representation."

F. RPC 1.14(a), provides that when a client suffers from a diminished mental capacity a "lawyer shall, as far as reasonably possible, maintain a normal client-client relationship with the client."

G. RPC 1.15(i), states that "a lawyer shall deposit into a Trust Account legal fees and expenses that have been paid in advance, to be withdrawn by the lawyer only as fees are earned or expenses incurred, unless the client gives informed consent, confirmed in writing, to the handling of fees and expenses in a different manner.”

H. RPC 3.2, states that “a lawyer shall make reasonable efforts to expedite litigation consistent with the interests of the client.”

I. RPC 8.4(d), states that “[i]t is professional misconduct for a lawyer to engage in conduct that is prejudicial to the administration of justice.”

J. Pa.R.D.E. 203(b) (1), provides that a criminal conviction shall be grounds for discipline.

K. Pa.R.D.E 203(b)(7), provides that the “[f]ailure by a respondent-attorney without good cause to respond to Disciplinary Counsel’s request or supplemental request under Disciplinary Board Rules, § 87.7(b) for a statement of the respondent-attorney’s position” shall be grounds for discipline.

L. Pa.R.D.E. 214 (a), provides that “an attorney convicted of a crime shall report the fact of such conviction within 20 days to the Office of Disciplinary Counsel.” For purposes of this rule, the term “crime” is expressly includes “criminal contempt, whether direct or indirect, and without regard to the sentence.” See Pa.R.D.E. 214(h).

JOINT RECOMMENDATION FOR DISCIPLINE

113. ODC and Respondent jointly recommend that the appropriate discipline for Respondent is a suspension of one year and one day.

114. Respondent asserts that he began treatment for anxiety and depression while representing Mr. Walters.

115. Respondent hereby consents to the discipline being imposed upon him by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Attached to this Petition as Exhibit A is Respondent's executed Affidavit required by Pa.R.D.E. 215(d)(1) through (4).

116. ODC and Respondent respectfully submit that the following are aggravating circumstances:

a. Respondent continued to accept monthly payments of $500.00, from Ms. McClelland after her appeal had been dismissed; and

b. On October 4, 2016, Respondent received an informal admonition with a condition that he refund unearned and advanced fees to two clients. Respondent's misconduct included lack of competence, failure to communicate, retaining unearned advanced fees, and failure to respond to one of the DB-7s. Respondent complied with the condition.

117. ODC and Respondent respectfully submit that Respondent's belated cooperation with ODC as evidenced by this Joint Petition is a mitigating factor.

118. The parties believe, and therefore aver, that their recommendation for a suspension of one year and one day is consistent with disciplinary case law involving a respondent who has been held in criminal contempt and when there is other misconduct. In Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Michael Elias Stosic, No. 65 DB 2015 (S.Ct. Order 9/14/16) the respondent was convicted on three separate occasions of criminal contempt for failing to attend court proceedings without notice to the courts, opposing counsel and his clients. In addition to the contempt convictions, Stosic also failed to communicate in five client matters, failed to provide those clients with competent and diligent representation, engaged in conduct that was prejudicial to the administration of justice, and provided false and misleading information that he had professional liability insurance to one a client and in his annual attorney registration form. The aggravating factors included Stosic's lack of remorse, failure to accept responsibility, failure to take steps to correct his disorganized approach to the practice of law, cavalier attitude toward his clients in favor of receiving fees, and failure to appreciate the impact upon his clients and the court system by failing to appear for court.

A suspension of one year and one day is also appropriate in cases involving serial neglect, failing to communicate, retaining unearned fees, failing to take steps to remedy the neglect, and failing to respond to inquiries from disciplinary authorities. Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Mark David Johns, No. 95 DB 2013 (S.Ct. Order 12/30/14) (neglect in two client matters for which Johns had received payment, failure to communicate and delaying his refund to the clients. Aggravating factors included an informal admonition involving Johns' failure to cooperate with successor attorney and a private reprimand for neglect and failure to communicate. Johns was on notice that he would receive a private reprimand while he represented one of the clients at issue in the suspension case); Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Richard Patrick Reynolds, 179 DB 2011 (S.Ct. 3/31/14)(neglect of client's appeal in a criminal matter, failure to communicate and client abandonment; aggravating factors included two informal admonitions for similar conduct); Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Ann-Marie MacDonald Pahides, No. 171 DB 2009 (S.Ct. 12/27/10) (lack of competence, neglect, lack of communication, and the failure to refund unearned fees and documents in five client matters; aggravating factor was an informal admonition); Office of Disciplinary Counsel v. Marc D. Collazzo, No. 165 DB 2010 (S.Ct. 11/30/10) (lack of competence, lack of communication and misrepresentations to a client; aggravating factor was engaging in identical misconduct with a different client).

119. A suspension of one year and one day requiring Respondent to prove his fitness at a reinstatement hearing protects the public and meets the goals of the disciplinary system.

WHEREFORE, Respondent and ODC jointly respectfully request that your Honorable

Board:

- a. Approve this Petition; and
- b. File a recommendation for a suspension of one year and one day and this Petition with the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

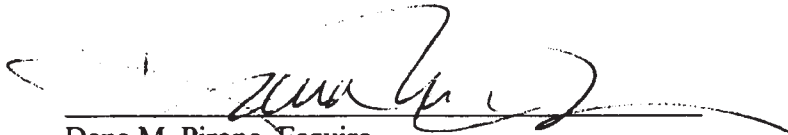

Respectfully submitted,
