

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF PENNSYLVANIA EASTERN DISTRICT

|                               |   |                  |
|-------------------------------|---|------------------|
| COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, | : | No. 296 EAL 2014 |
|                               |   | :                |
| Respondent                    |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
| v.                            |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
| RICKY DOCKERY,                |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
| Petitioner                    |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |
|                               |   | :                |

ORDER

PER CURIAM

AND NOW, this 6th day of October, 2014, the Application for Leave to File Post-Submission Communication and the Petition for Allowance of Appeal are DENIED.