

DISMISS; and Opinion Filed December 28, 2015.

In The Court of Appeals
Fifth District of Texas at Dallas

No. 05-15-01243-CR

WILLIAM DAVID WALTON, Appellant
V.
THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 282nd Judicial District Court
Dallas County, Texas
Trial Court Cause No. F-1252565-S

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Before Justices Bridges, Lang-Miers, and Schenck
Opinion by Justice Schenck

William David Walton was convicted, following the adjudication of his guilt, of possession of methamphetamine in an amount of one gram or more but less than four grams. Appellant pleaded true to the allegations in the motion to adjudicate guilt as part of a plea agreement, which included a waiver of his right to appeal. See Blanco v. State, 18 S.W.3d 218, 219–20 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000). The trial court followed the plea agreement and sentenced appellant to two years' imprisonment. Because appellant waived his right to appeal, we dismiss the appeal for want of jurisdiction.
