IN RE JAMES ALLON STUFFLEBEAM, Relator

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus

MEMORANDUM OPINION¹

Relator, James Allon Stufflebeam, filed this original habeas corpus proceeding after the district court held him in contempt and committed him to county jail for failing to comply with the district court's discovery order and divorce decree. Relator's petition does not comply with rule 52 of the Texas Rules of Procedure because it is not properly certified, see TEX. R. APP. P. 52.3(j), and does not contain “a properly authenticated transcript of any relevant testimony from any underlying proceeding, including any exhibits offered in evidence, or a statement that no testimony was adduced in connection with the matter complained[,]” TEX. R. APP. P. 52.7(a)(2). Without a record of the proceedings below, this Court cannot determine whether relator is entitled to the relief he seeks. Accordingly, we deny relator’s petition for writ of habeas corpus without prejudice to his re-filing a petition in compliance with rule 52.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Justices Keyes, Massengale, and Brown.
