

Opinion issued April 12, 2024

In The Court of Appeals
For The
First District of Texas

NO. 01-24-00268-CV

IN RE LILLY LERNER, Relator

Original Proceeding on Petition for Writ of Mandamus

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Relator, Lilly Lerner, has filed a petition for writ of mandamus challenging the trial court’s April 5, 2024 order (1) vacating the writ of supersedeas issued by the district court clerk on February 8, 2024, and (2) holding that the “September 27, 2023 order has not been suspended . . . and remains in full force and effect.”¹ We deny the petition. Relator's emergency motion for a temporary stay of the April 5, 2024 order is dismissed as moot.

¹ The underlying case is In the Interest of APL and TDL, Minor Children, cause number 2015-64508, pending in the 247th District Court of Harris County, Texas, the Honorable Janice Berg presiding.

PER CURIAM

Panel consists of Justices Goodman, Landau, and Hightower.