PETITION FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS DENIED AS MOOT

On September 27, 2013, relator filed a pro se petition for writ of mandamus, complaining of the trial court's failure to rule on a pending motion in the underlying criminal proceedings. By the motion, relator sought to have the court lift the confidential designation from portions of the record of his criminal trial to allow him to obtain copies of record materials. On October 16, 2013, the real party in interest filed a response to the petition for writ of mandamus indicating that, upon further review, the State agreed relator should have access to the requested record materials. The real party in interest attached copies of the requested documents to its response, which has been provided to relator in this proceeding. Because relator has obtained the relief sought by his motion and the petition for writ of mandamus, relator's petition is now moot. Accordingly, the petition for writ of mandamus is denied as moot. See TEX. R. APP. P. 52.8(a).
