FROM COUNTY CRIMINAL COURT NO. 1 OF DENTON COUNTY

MEMORANDUM OPINION¹

Appellant Jose Guadalupe Salazar attempts to appeal from the trial court's revocation of his community supervision for assault-family violence.² On June 29, 2012, the trial court signed an order revoking appellant's community supervision and imposing a sentence of ninety days' incarceration. On the same day, the trial court signed a certification of appellant's right to appeal, which was also signed by appellant and appellant's counsel. The certification states that appellant "waived [his] right of appeal." Nonetheless, just a few days after signing the certification, appellant filed a notice of appeal.

On July 6, 2012, through a letter, we notified appellant of the contents of the certification and stated that we would dismiss the appeal unless he filed a response showing grounds for continuing the appeal. See Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(a)(2), (d). We have not received a response. Therefore, in accordance with the trial court's certification, we dismiss this appeal. See Tex. R. App. P. 25.2(d) ("The appeal must be dismissed if a certification that shows the defendant has the right of appeal has not been made part of the record under these rules."), 43.2(f); Jackson v. State, 168 S.W.3d 239, 243 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2005, no pet.).
