

NO. 07-12-00453-CV
IN THE COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE SEVENTH DISTRICT OF TEXAS
AT AMARILLO
PANEL A
FEBRUARY 14, 2013

PATRICK R. COX, APPELLANT

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, APPELLEE

FROM THE 200TH DISTRICT COURT OF TRAVIS COUNTY;
NO. D-1-GV-10-000486; HONORABLE ORLINDA NARANJO, JUDGE

Before CAMPBELL and HANCOCK and PIRTLE, JJ.

ORDER

On February 12, 2013, appellant, Patrick R. Cox, filed an Emergency Motion for Enforcement of Supersedeas Pending Hearing on Appellant's Motion for Review of Trial Court's Ruling on Supersedeas, which requests this Court to issue an order staying all collection efforts by the State of Texas pending this Court's ruling on Cox's simultaneously filed Motion for Review of Trial Court's Rulings on Supersedeas and Validity of Appellant's Net Worth Affidavit Pursuant to TEX. R. APP. P. 24.4. After consideration of the emergency motion and the State of Texas's response, the Court is of the opinion that the motion should be denied.

Additionally, Cox's Motion for Review of Trial Court's Rulings on Supersedeas and Validity of Appellant's Net Worth Affidavit Pursuant to TEX. R. APP. P. 24.4 is denied. By this motion, Cox implies a ruling of the trial court that has not been made. Because Cox's motion does not challenge the amount of supersedeas bond set by the trial court's November 20, 2012 order but, rather, challenges a "ruling" on Cox's net worth affidavit that the trial court has not actually rendered, this Court does not have authority to consider the motion. See TEX. R. APP. P. 24.4(a).
