Sixth Appellate District of Texas at Texarkana

No. 06-13-00155-CR

JUSTIN EUGENE CLARK, Appellant

V.

THE STATE OF TEXAS, Appellee

On Appeal from the 204th District Court
Dallas County, Texas
Trial Court No. F-1261948-Q

Before Morriss, C.J., Carter and Moseley, JJ.
Memorandum Opinion by Chief Justice Morriss

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Justin Eugene Clark appeals his conviction for unauthorized use of a motor vehicle in Dallas County¹ and sentence of two years' confinement. In a companion case, also decided today, Clark has appealed a related conviction for aggravated robbery, accompanied by an affirmative deadly-weapon finding, and his sentence of ten years' imprisonment. In the two companion appeals, Clark has filed a combined brief, in which he raises a single issue challenging the sufficiency of the evidence that he used or exhibited a deadly weapon, a finding made in the aggravated robbery appeal.

We addressed his sole issue in detail in our opinion of this date in cause number 06-13-00156-CR. The judgment in this case, convicting Clark simply of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, does not contain a deadly-weapon finding. Since this case does not contain a deadly-weapon finding, Clark's sole issue in this case has not demonstrated reversible error.²

¹Originally appealed to the Fifth Court of Appeals, this case was transferred to this Court by the Texas Supreme Court pursuant to its docket equalization efforts. See Tex. Gov't CODE ANN. § 73.001 (West 2013). We are unaware of any conflict between precedent of the Fifth Court of Appeals and that of this court on any relevant issue. See TEX. R. APP. P. 41.3.

²Clark's appellate attorney provided an extensive and zealous defense in the companion case. In this case, there is no Anders brief or a motion to withdraw. Out of an abundance of caution, however, we have independently reviewed the entire record and find no genuinely arguable issue for the appeal in this case. See Halbert v. Michigan, 545 U.S. 605, 623 (2005); Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 743-44 (1967).

We affirm the trial court's judgment.
