REGINALD DARREL TAYLOR,

Appellant

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS,

Appellee

From the 82nd District Court
Falls County, Texas
Trial Court Nos. 8418 and 8441

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Reginald Darrel Taylor pled guilty to possession with the intent to deliver a controlled substance. See TEX. HEALTH & SAFETY CODE ANN. § 481.112(c) (Vernon 2003); (10-08-00351-CR). Taylor also pled guilty to aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. See TEX. PENAL CODE ANN. § 22.02(a)(2) (Vernon Supp. 2008); (10-08-00352-CR). He was sentenced to 7 years in prison for each offense. Taylor appealed both of his convictions. The notice of appeal, which included both trial court case numbers, was filed almost 7 months after the date the sentences were imposed. Further, the trial court signed certifications of defendant's right of appeal which indicated Taylor had no right to appeal his convictions and waived his right to appeal.

In a letter dated October 20, 2008, the Clerk of this Court notified Taylor that his appeals were subject to dismissal because it appeared that the notice of appeal was untimely and that the certifications of defendant's right of appeal indicated that Taylor had no right of appeal and waived his right to appeal. The Clerk also warned Taylor that his appeals could be dismissed unless, within 21 days of the date of the letter, a response was filed showing grounds for continuing the appeals. More than 21 days have passed, and Taylor has not filed a response.

Accordingly, his appeals are dismissed. See TEX. R. APP. P. 44.3, 25.2(d).
