TENTH COURT OF APPEALS

No. 10-16-00147-CR

DAMIAN PAUL SPENCER HAFLEY,

Appellant

Trial Court No. CR 24,290

The Clerk of the Court received a document from Appellant Damian Hafley that the Court is treating as a notice of appeal of his conviction for criminal non-support. Hafley's document complains about this conviction and eighteen-month sentence and indicates a desire to appeal the conviction.

The Clerk has received a copy of Hafley's "judgment adjudicating guilt" from the District Clerk of Milam County. That judgment reflects an eighteen-month sentence for criminal non-support.

Because this Court lacks jurisdiction of an appeal from a district court in Milam County, which is within the territorial jurisdiction of the Third Court of Appeals, this appeal is dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. See TEX. GOV'T. CODE ANN. §§ 22.220(a), 22.201(g, k) (West Supp. 2015).
