COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Frank, McClanahan and Retired Judge Hodges*

DOMINIC D. ROBINSON

v. Record No. 0739-08-1

MEMORANDUM OPINION
PER CURIAM
AUGUST 19, 2008

HAMPTON REDEVELOPMENT AND HOUSING AUTHORITY AND VIRGINIA MUNICIPAL GROUP SELF-INSURANCE ASSOCIATION

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Dominic D. Robinson, pro se, on briefs).

(Robert A. Rapaport; Kira A. Ligato; Clarke, Dolph, Rapaport, Hull, Brunick & Garriott, P.L.C., on brief), for appellees.

Dominic D. Robinson (claimant) appeals a decision of the Workers' Compensation

Commission finding that (1) the statute of limitations contained in Code §§ 65.2-601 and

65.2-406 bars her claim filed on September 17, 2007, and, therefore, the commission is without jurisdiction to hear it; and (2) claimant failed to prove any legal basis for tolling the statute of limitations contained in either code section. We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Robinson v. Hampton Redevelopment and Housing Authority, VWC File No. 206-31-07 (Mar. 7, 2008). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the Affirmed.

¹ Because we summarily affirm the commission's decision, we deny appellees' motions to dismiss filed on May 8, 2008 and May 20, 2008. In addition, we deny claimant's motions under Code § 8.01-428, seeking an award of one billion dollars. We note that in rendering our decision, we did not consider any evidence that was not properly before the commission when it rendered its decision.
