

COURT OF APPEALS OF VIRGINIA

Present: Judges Humphreys, McCullough and Retired Judge Hodges*

MISCHELLE BROWN-MAYO

v. Record No. 1084-13-2

COUNTY OF CHESTERFIELD

MEMORANDUM OPINION
PER CURIAM
OCTOBER 8, 2013

FROM THE VIRGINIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION COMMISSION

(Michelle Brown-Mayo, pro se, on brief).

(David W. Robinson, Senior Assistant County Attorney, on brief), for appellee.

Mischelle Brown-Mayo (claimant) appeals a decision of the Workers' Compensation Commission affirming the termination of an award of wage loss benefits on the ground that claimant's current disability is unrelated to the compensable accident. Claimant contends the commission erred by (1) discounting the opinion of her treating physician, (2) giving "undue weight to the 'objective findings,'" (3) concluding the record demonstrated she was receiving treatment for back pain shortly before her compensable accident, and (4) failing to "take into consideration" her testimony describing her symptoms and injury.

We have reviewed the record and the commission's opinion and find that this appeal is without merit. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the commission in its final opinion. See Brown-Mayo v. Chesterfield Cnty., JCN VA00000218265 (May 23, 2013). We dispense with oral argument and summarily affirm because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the Court and argument would not aid the decisional process. See Code § 17.1-403; Rule 5A:27.
