IN RE FRANCISCO F.
Decision of the Court

CAMPBELL, Judge:

¶1 Francisco F. (“the Juvenile”) timely appeals from his commitment to the Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (“ADJC”). After searching the record on appeal and finding no arguable, non-frivolous question of law, the Juvenile’s counsel filed a brief in accordance with Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738 (1967), State v. Leon, 104 Ariz. 297 (1969), and Maricopa County Juvenile Action No. JV-117258, 163 Ariz. 484 (App. 1989), asking this court to search the record for fundamental error. This court denied counsel’s motion to allow the Juvenile to file a supplemental brief in accordance with In re Cochise County Juvenile Delinquency Action No. DL88-00037, 164 Ariz. 417, 419-20 (App. 1990). After reviewing the entire record, we find no fundamental error and affirm the juvenile court’s disposition.

FACTS AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

¶2 Through a plea agreement, the Juvenile admitted to a charge of criminal trespass (a class 3 misdemeanor) from a petition dated October 28, 2016.¹ Through a second, later plea agreement, the Juvenile also admitted to: one count of aggravated assault (a class 6 undesignated felony), one count of attempted voyeurism (a class 6 undesignated felony), and one count of aggravated assault with a dangerous instrument (a class three felony), all from two petitions both dated February 10, 2017; and one count of aggravated assault (a class six undesignated felony) from a petition dated March 1, 2017. The juvenile court scheduled a disposition hearing for all of the counts listed above on May 23, 2017. At disposition, the juvenile court committed the Juvenile to ADJC for a minimum term in secured care of 30 days and ordered the Juvenile to participate in any services arranged for him through ADJC providers. No restitution was imposed.

DISCUSSION

¶3 We have reviewed the entire record for fundamental, reversible error and find none. See Maricopa Cty. Juv. Action No. JV-117258, 163 Ariz. at 488. The court found the Juvenile knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily entered into the plea agreements and the punishment imposed is lawful. See Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 8-341(A)(1). The Juvenile was present and represented by counsel at all critical stages.

CONCLUSION

¶4 No further briefing is necessary. We affirm the juvenile court's disposition. After the filing of this decision, defense counsel's obligations pertaining to the Juvenile's representation in this appeal have ended. Defense counsel need do no more than inform the Juvenile of the outcome of this appeal and his future options, unless, upon review, counsel finds an issue appropriate for submission to the Arizona Supreme Court by petition for review. See Ariz. R.P. Juv. Ct. 107(A); State v. Shattuck, 140 Ariz. 582, 584-85 (1984).
