

SUPREME COURT OF ARKANSAS

No. CR-13-575

DIMITRIA SINGLETON-HARRIS
APPELLANT

V.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
APPELLEEOpinion Delivered July 25, 2013MOTION FOR INDIGENCY
DETERMINATION OR IN THE
ALTERNATIVE FOR A HEARING;
MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS
COUNSEL; FIRST AMENDED
COUNSELMOTIONS GRANTED.PER CURIAM

As reflected by an amended sentencing order entered on May 13, 2013, a jury in the Miller County Circuit Court found appellant Dimitria Singleton-Harris guilty of rape, aggravated assault, robbery, kidnapping, and aggravated residential burglary for which she received a cumulative sentence of forty-four years in prison. Her retained counsel, Jasmine F. Crockett, filed a notice of appeal on appellant's behalf.

Counsel has filed a motion before this court seeking a determination that appellant is indigent for purposes of appeal. As reflected by appellant's affidavit in support of the request to proceed in forma pauperis, appellant is indigent, and we grant her motion.

Counsel has also filed a motion to withdraw as counsel and an amended motion to withdraw as counsel, based on the assertion that she lacks experience in appellate matters. We grant counsel's motions to withdraw and appoint attorney Tim Cullen to represent appellant on appeal.

It is so ordered.
