IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION TWO

Guardianship of Christian G., a Minor.
Mark G. et al.	A128108
Petitioners and Respondents,	(Mendocino County
v.	Super. Ct. No. 0925373)
John G.,	ORDER MODIFYING OPINION
Objector and Appellant.	[NO CHANGE IN JUDGMENT]

THE COURT:

It is ordered that the published opinion filed herein on May 12, 2011, be modified as follows:

On page 16, under the heading “C. Investigations under probate guardianship law versus dependency law,” the third and last paragraph of that section shall be modified to read:

Although the probate court investigatory report in this case appears to have been rather thorough and well-balanced, the Probate Code is far less specific as to what information is required in such a report, especially with respect to preexisting family home life, nor are timelines imposed for completion of the investigation comparable to those in juvenile court. (Compare Probate Code § 1513 with Welf. & Inst. Code, §§ 352, subd. (b), 358, 358.1, 360, 16501.1.)
