

CERTIFIED FOR PUBLICATION

IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA

SECOND APPELLATE DISTRICT

DIVISION FIVE

In re G.G. et al., Persons Coming Under the Juvenile Court Law.

B215471
(Los Angeles County
Super. Ct. No. CK76059)

LOS ANGELES COUNTY
DEPARTMENT OF CHILDREN AND FAMILY SERVICES,

ORDER MODIFYING
CONCURRING AND DISSENTING OPINION

Plaintiff and Respondent,

[NO CHANGE IN JUDGMENT]

v.

F.G.,

Defendant and Appellant.

THE COURT:

It is ordered that the concurring and dissenting opinion of Justice Armstrong filed June 29, 2010, be modified as follows:

The first full paragraph, page 1, last sentence, the words "was within the juvenile court's discretion" are deleted. The sentence will now read as follows:

"I also believe that the trial court abused its discretion when it ordered that Father undergo counseling for his racist and sexist remarks, an order which was an outgrowth of the "chaotic home environment" order."

There is no change in judgment.

CERTIFIED FOR PUBLICATION

ARMSTRONG, J.