Upon Defendant
Motion for Summary Judgment

ORDER

Defendant McCord Corporation filed this Motion for Summary Judgment arguing, in part, that Plaintiffs' claims fail because the Court has no personal jurisdiction over Defendant. Defendant claims that it is a Michigan corporation, with its principal place of business in Michigan, and it is not otherwise essentially at home in Delaware. In response, Plaintiffs requested the opportunity to perform limited discovery on the subject of personal jurisdiction in wake of the Supreme Court decision which Defendant relies on, Bristol-Myers Squibb Co. v. Superior Court of California, decided on June 19, 2017. In light of these circumstances, the Court will grant Plaintiff time for additional discovery regarding the issue of personal jurisdiction. Any supplement to this Motion is due within sixty (60) days.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
