Decided: April 24, 2003

Before HOLLAND, BERGER and STEELE, Justices.

O R D E R

This 24th day of April 2003, the Court having considered this matter has determined that it is manifest on the face that the appeal is without merit because: to the extent the issues raised on appeal are factual, the record evidence supports the trial judge's factual findings; to the extent the errors alleged on appeal are attributed to an abuse of discretion, the record does not support those assertions; and to the extent that the issues raised on appeal are legal, they are controlled by settled Delaware law, which was properly applied. Therefore, this Court has concluded that the judgment of the final judgment of the Superior Court should be affirmed on the basis of and for the reasons assigned by the Superior Court in its decision dated May 31, 2002.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the judgment of the Superior Court be, and the same hereby is, AFFIRMED.

BY THE COURT:
