ORDER

This 21st day of April 2011, it appears to the Court that:

(1) The plaintiffs-appellants, Chan Young Lee et al. (the “appellants”), have petitioned this Court, pursuant to Supreme Court Rule 42, to accept an appeal from the interlocutory order of the Superior Court dated March 9, 2011, which granted the motion in limine of the defendantappellee, Choice Hotels International, Inc., to exclude from trial Regulation No. 61 of the Minister of Health of the Republic of Indonesia regarding health requirements of swimming pools and public baths.

(2) The appellants filed their application for certification to take an interlocutory appeal in the Superior Court on March 14, 2011. On April 18, 2011, the Superior Court denied the application for certification on the ground that the requirements of Rule 42 had not been met.

(3) Applications for interlocutory review are addressed to the sound discretion of this Court. In the exercise of its discretion, the Court has concluded that the appellants' application for interlocutory review fails to meet the requirements of Rule 42 and, therefore, should be refused.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the interlocutory appeal is REFUSED.

BY THE COURT:
