

exceeding the limits of its jurisdiction.¹ Like a writ of mandamus, a writ of prohibition will not issue if the petitioner has another adequate remedy at law.²

(3) The record before us reflects that the petitioner had the option of filing a motion in the Family Court to keep personal information confidential, but did not do so. Because he had an adequate remedy in the Family Court, the petitioner is not entitled to the issuance of a writ of prohibition by this Court. Nor is there any evidence that the Family Court exceeded its jurisdiction in any respect. Therefore, the petition for a writ of prohibition must be dismissed.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the petition for a writ of prohibition is DISMISSED.
