ORDER

This appeal is from the Superior Court’s order of March 6, 2018, which adopted a Commissioner’s report and recommendation and denied Flowers’ successive motion for postconviction relief as procedurally barred.¹ The State has moved to affirm the Superior Court’s judgment on the ground that it is manifest on the face of Flowers’ opening that the appeal is without merit. We agree and affirm. Flowers offered no new evidence creating a strong inference of actual innocence or any new rule of constitutional law that would invalidate his convictions, and he did not raise a jurisdictional claim. Flowers' postconviction motion was properly denied as procedurally barred.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the motion to affirm is GRANTED. The judgment of the Superior Court is AFFIRMED.
