Decided: January 10, 2024

Before VALIHURA, TRAYNOR, and LEGROW, Justices.

ORDER

After careful consideration of the appellant’s opening brief, the State’s motion to affirm, and the record on appeal, we conclude that the judgment below should be affirmed on the basis of the Superior Court’s order, dated September 13, 2023, summarily dismissing the appellant’s second motion for postconviction relief. Contrary to his claim on appeal, the appellant has not pleaded circumstances under Rule 61(d)(2)(i) that overcome the procedural bars set forth in Rule 61(i)(1) and (i)(2).¹ The appellant pleaded guilty, and his assertion that he has new evidence that law enforcement illegally or improperly used cell-site simulators or related devices² to gather evidence against him, even if true, does not create a “strong inference” that he is “actually innocent in fact of the acts underlying the charges of which he was convicted.”³

¹ See DEL. SUPER. CT. R. CRIM. PROC. 61(i)(5) (“The bars to relief in paragraphs (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this subdivision shall not apply either to a claim that the court lacked jurisdiction or to a claim that satisfies the pleading requirements of subparagraphs (2)(i) or (2)(ii) of subdivision (d) of this rule.”).

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that the motion to affirm is GRANTED and the judgment of the Superior Court is AFFIRMED.
