

Notice: This opinion is subject to formal revision before publication in the Atlantic and Maryland Reporters. Users are requested to notify the Clerk of the Court of any formal errors so that corrections may be made before the bound volumes go to press.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA COURT OF APPEALS

No. 11-BG-678

IN RE: ROBERT TEIR,
Respondent.

Bar Registration No. 413171

BDN: 143-11

BEFORE: Oberly, Associate Judge, Steadman and King, Senior Judges.

ORDER

(FILED - October 6, 2011)

On consideration of the certified copy of the Agreed Judgment of Probated Suspension from the State Bar of Texas, suspending respondent from the practice of law in that jurisdiction for a period of eighteen months, all stayed in favor of the probation imposed by Texas, this court's June 20, 2011 order directing him to show cause why identical reciprocal discipline should not be imposed, respondent's response, the statement of Bar Counsel regarding reciprocal discipline, and it appearing that the reasons given by respondent in his response to why reciprocal discipline should not be imposed do not fall within the exceptions to reciprocal discipline listed in D.C. Bar Rule XI § 11( c), it is ORDERED that, Robert Teir, Esquire, is hereby suspended for a period of eighteen months, all stayed in favor of an eighteen-month probationary period subject to the conditions imposed by the State of Texas that he not engage in professional misconduct or violate any state or federal criminal statutes.

PER CURIAM