Plaintiff

v.

JOEL TENENBAUM

Defendant - Appellee

CALENDARING NOTICE

Issued: February 23, 2011

This case is presently scheduled to be called for oral argument on April 04, 2011 at 9:30 a.m. in Boston, MA.

Within two weeks of the date of this notice, counsel for each party should advise this office of the name of the person who will be presenting oral argument by completing and filing the Designation Form available on the court's website at www.ca1.uscourts.gov. If counsel presenting oral argument has not yet entered an appearance, counsel must file an appearance and motion in accordance with 1st Cir. R. 12.0(a) with the Designation Form.

There will be no continuance except for grave cause.

Recordings of all proceedings in cases by parties before the court will be made available online unless the court orders otherwise or the court closes the proceedings to the public. Counsel therefore should consider the privacy implications of this before argument.

All counsel presenting oral argument must arrive at least 15 minutes before court convenes. Arguing counsel should proceed directly to the courtroom and check-in with the courtroom deputy.

On occasion, cases scheduled for oral argument are removed from the calendar before the scheduled date. The oral argument calendar is frequently prepared before the judges have completed their review of the briefs. Therefore, if the panel ultimately concludes that argument is not warranted in a particular case, that case will be removed from the argument calendar. In such circumstances, the clerk's office will endeavor to notify counsel as promptly as possible.

The identity of the panel, as well as the time allotted for oral argument, will be posted on the Court Calendar page of the court's website one week prior to the date of oral argument.
