No. 08-4207

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO EXPEDITE APPEAL

The federal defendants-appellants, with the consent of plaintiff-appellee, respectfully request that the Court expedite this appeal. This is a Freedom of Information Act suit in which the district court has ordered the depositions of two federal inmates, one of whom has been sentenced to death. To avoid burdening the Court at this time with a motion for a stay pending appeal, the parties have agreed to delay holding the depositions and to request expedition from this Court.

To aid in the expeditious consideration of this appeal, the federal defendants, again with the consent of plaintiff, ask that the Court enter a briefing schedule under which appellants' opening brief will be due December 15, appellee's response brief on January 14, and appellants' reply brief on January 29.

Respectfully submitted,

MARK B. STERN
