RE: 10-2102, Doe v. City of Albuquerque
Dist/Ag docket: 1:08-CV-01041-MCA-LFG

Dear Counsel:

Appellee's brief is deficient because:

There is no list of prior or related appeals, with appropriate citations, nor is there an express statement that there are no prior or related appeals. See 10th Cir. R. 28.2(C)(1).

You may correct the stated deficiency by one of the following methods:

1. Filing a corrected brief with the clerk (filing constitutes submitting a corrected brief via the court's Electronic Case Filing system [ECF] and providing the clerk with seven hardcopies of the corrected brief).
2. Filing a corrected brief via ECF and making arrangements with the clerk's office to have the deficient hardcopies of the brief picked up and returned at the party's expense so that it can be corrected and returned to the clerk. The court will not pay postage or other costs.
3. Filing an errata sheet containing the omitted matter via ECF and providing seven hardcopies of the errata sheet to the clerk. You do not need to refile the brief.

Corrections, however made, must be accompanied by proof of service on all other parties to the appeal.

The time to file a reply brief will run from the date of service of appellee's corrected brief.

If you fail to correct the stated deficiency within 10 days of the date of this letter, the deficient brief will not be filed. In addition, the appellee will not be heard at oral argument unless the court grants permission. See Fed. R. App. P. 31(c).

Please contact this office if you have questions.

Sincerely,

Elisabeth A. Shumaker
Clerk of the Court
