MEMORANDUM FOR D. EUN

U.S. & [International Deal Teams]

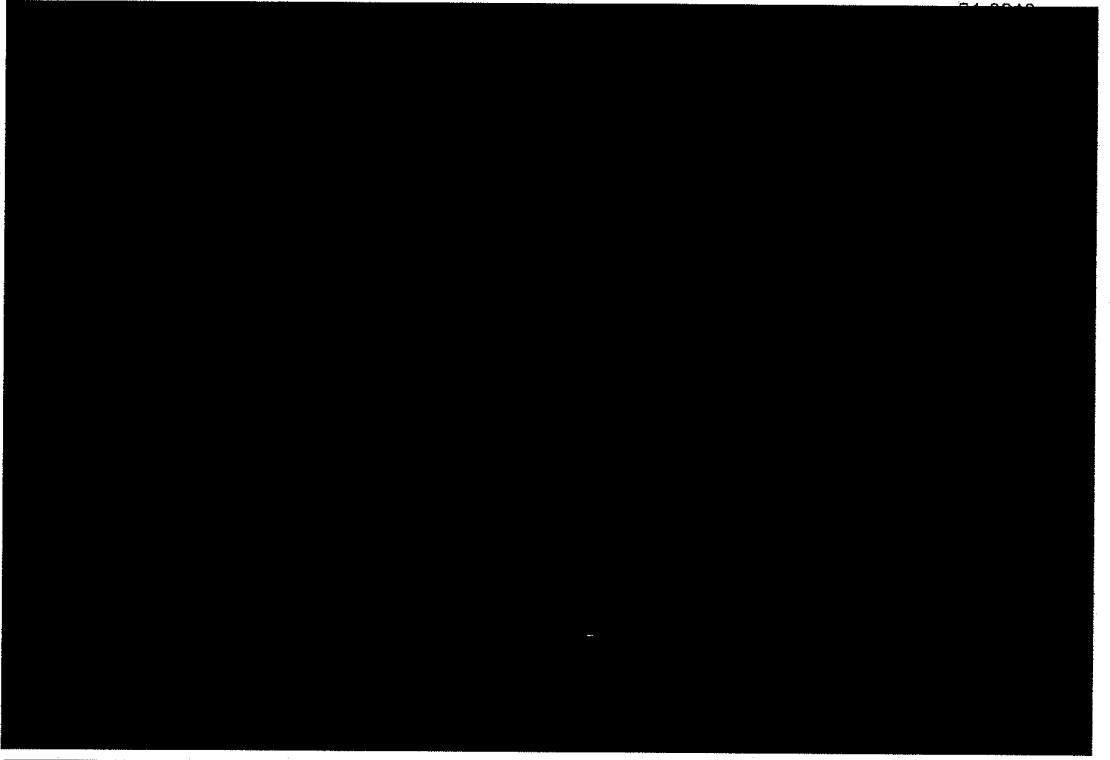

June 4, 2007

- Query Stream Data (Attached): Analyses of current query stream data unequivocally illustrates that there is enormous user demand for premium content.

[REDACTED] that our users do, in fact, want premium content from us. Our opinion – based in particular on the recent analysis that both Shashi and Alex have done on query stream data (which data is appended to this memo) – is that they do. The challenge is that we either have not yet licensed the content that our users are looking for, or, [REDACTED]

Summary

Music content is a key element to YouTube's success. Premium music content is the most watched genre of content on YouTube. Thus, it is imperative that we acquire, and allow content owners to claim, as much content as possible to promote the growth and success of YouTube.

Audio Fingerprinting is the YouTube's next step in allowing music copyright owners to claim and monetize content. Currently, Audible Magic, a 3rd party matching service, allows YouTube to conduct audio matching of content. However, this service is imprecise, and YouTube has to pay a fee to use the service. Thus it is vital that YouTube develop its own audio matching service, along with the requisite reference database. YouTube cannot monetize content that does not have publisher data, as we have no way to report to and pay publishers, who share ownership of songs with music labels; currently, only music label data is available to us. By opening up our systems to ingest publisher data as well as label data per song, content on YouTube can then be claimed and monetized. In addition, the ingestion of audio files will allow us to match against audio portions of videos, thus giving content owners the ability to claim more content.

Reporting

Collection societies (Owner)
need to report to the collection societies # of views for songs, and the collection societies will handle payment to the publishers (EMEA)
Publisher (Owner)
will get information on # of views, and will be paid directly Aggregator Labels (Owner)
will get reporting information by publisher and # of views

Notes

Can be multiple publishers
Can be multiple primary publishers - secondary publisher data is optional, as they are not paid
Publishers are treated as content owners, but currently cannot place a claim on content

Questions

Videos - rights are taken care of (how?)
Should publishers have a separate frontend?
How is UMG giving us their publisher feed?

Open Issues

Prioritize different % of payment to multiple claimants (talk to Franck?)

Figueira Decl. Tab

Adam,

David gets final say in whether we give them test access, but...

2 weeks is too long. The best that I can suggest, the same as Canal +, is 3 business days, with a cap on the number of claims (for Canal + it was a max of 10 over 3 days) they can make. The reasons for this, even though it is a test setup, any claims they make will have to be processed and considered as a valid take down request. We don't want them using the test period to take down every piece of content they think violates copyright. We want to minimize the number of requests, one reason being PSO has to support this and as you know we are quite strained for resources. If they want to use our tools to help them monitor copyright content and claim them, they will have to work with us as a partner.

cheers
Sathya

Project Detail: Music

- In US alone, 400,000 active CD titles, millions of songs, 15,000 labels 40,000 music publishers, variable data standards and communication protocols. World catalog is >50 million songs.
- To achieve an actionable video policy, requires mapping of sound recording and composition rights. Entails mapping of millions of underlying licenses into intelligible entities, from diverse inputs.
- Core challenge is labels manage recordings, organized around ISRC, publishers manage compositions and organize around ISWC. Neither keeps good records of the other's world.

YouTube Confidential

72-

600001-01995261

Project Detail: Music Publishers

- Publishers have existing data standard called Common Works Registration. Complex platform but will accelerate our acquisition of data if we adapt.
- Complex ownership and administration arrangements, and constant movement of catalogs between publishers.
- Approximately 40% of compositions are represented by more than one publisher, with no maximum number of possible publishers.
- International requirements - In accordance with local laws, our deals with music publishers cannot include coverage for Europe and Japan as those rights are administered by local collection agencies. This means that the same piece of content will require multiple licenses and administration by geo.
- In most cases, labels will help administer publisher rights, but some deals will require direct management, and direct is long term goal for all.
- We will send list of tracks we think are licensed to publisher for confirmation.
- Takedowns will be at songwriter level.
- Labels cannot help administer Covers as they have no stake in the sound recording.
- Publishers are pushing hard for FP support for finding Covers.

More Detail: UMG Example

	Market Share	Songs	% Total	Partial Lic	100% Lic	% Total
UMG complete
UMPG overlap
EMI overlap
Warner overlap
SonyATV (est.)
BMG (est.)
5 Majors total

- Big difference in market share between sales vs. track counts
- Can't prioritize what you don't know - can't always take advantage of relevance in accumulating catalog, that requires research driven approach, and promiscuous data gathering
- License coverage is achieved by intersection of 3-way dealscape, and then ability to process
- Will require many deals....

Plan

- Get complete catalog statements from all signed labels, including data for composer, publisher, sub-publisher, and any other data we can get from them
  - Includes EMI, SonyBMG, UMG, WMG
- Get complete catalog information from signed publishers in industry standard CWR format
- Prioritize work by processing files as we receive them

FAPL + YouTube

YouTube Content Deal

Patrick Walker

Date: February 7th, 2007

CONFIDENTIAL - FOR INTERNAL USE ONLY

Partner Overview

Who Are They?

- Business description
  - Formed in 1992, it is the premier football competition in the UK
  - Revenues of over $2.5bn per year, the most lucrative football league in the world and world's most popular sport
  - X-UK/Ireland TV rights sold at record $330MM for 2007-2009 seasons

- Size
  - 20 teams – featuring most of world's best players
- Market presence
  - World's most watched sporting league followed by over 1 billion people world-wide
  - Most widely distributed sports programme in Asia
  - TV audiences of 100m-300m are reported in China

Why Do the Deal?

- First global sports YT deal with world's biggest and most recognized sporting league
- Globally recognized brand affiliation and content helping drive usage and break into new markets (APLA following huge)
- Prime content with which we can test and improve advertising in various geographies
- Already proven as key programming based on GV and YT popular videos/usage
- Supports YouTube expansion onto Mobile platforms and partnerships
- Keep Premier League as collaborative partner – including potential for Claim Your Content tool use and no-sue provision. They have been patient with us thus far since knowing we are interested in these rights.

Proposed Deal Terms

Client	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• FA Premier League</li> </ul>
Term	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 3 years from 2007/2008 Season (beginning Sept. 2007)</li> </ul>
License fee	payable in 3 equal installments (pre-payment of 6% of successful bid required before entering contract negotiations)
	No ongoing revenue share. Post flat license fee recoupment, all profits go to licensee.
Proposal	Can bid on either (or both) of: Internet Package <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• FAPL provides individual match highlights, round reviews, archive footage and themed packages across every game week</li> <li>• 608 clips per year delivered in steady flow</li> </ul> Mobile Package <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• FAPL provides in-match clips, match highlights, round reviews and preview packages every game week</li> <li>• Approx 2128 clips per year delivered in steady flow</li> </ul>
Territory	• Worldwide x-UK/Ireland. Can choose to bid either Worldwide or by country
Exclusivity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Exclusive license only (can bid with up to one partner)</li> <li>• Sub-licensing and syndication rights available</li> </ul>
Timeline	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bid required by 15th February</li> </ul>

Comps

A-253

- Premiership
  - UK Television rights (Sky and BBC) $2bn over 3 years
  - UK Mobile rights (3 and Vodafone) $100m over 3 years
  - International Television rights $330m per year
- La liga
  - Spanish Television rights (Sogecable and TVE) $1.2bn over 3 years
- French Premiere League
  - French Television rights (Canal +) $2.3bn over 3 years
- Bundesliga
  - German Television rights (Premiere, ARD and ZDF) $466m over 2 years
  - International All Media rights (Sportsman) $26m over 3 years

"4"

Major Issues

- Google becomes a premium, exclusive rights owner
  - Potential direct competition for rights with Media/Telco Partners
  - Likely to be seen as bold move in the world press
  - Deal on license fee basis only, not advance vs. ad rev share
  - Responsibility to sub-license/re-distribute for global coverage
- Google ability to monetise mobile license
  - Mobile license enables future YT development
  - But no monetisation platform in place / planned for mobile
- Content sub-licensing business is not core Google skills
  - Significant sub-licensing deals required to drive value, particularly in mobile

Asks

- Shall we proceed with preparing a bid?
  - Recommendation: Yes, but potentially for PC only
- Which packages territories should we bid on?
  - Recommendation: Global x-UK/Ireland (which are already taken). Note: NTL has clip rights in UK and has approached us about helping them monetize & distribute it so we may get UK as well via NTL partnership
- Any guidance on bid level?
  - Running models now. Aim for roughly $40MM over three years – which is what we believe is roughly in range of competitive bids, but not OTT
- Should we seek out a bid partner?
  - Have been approached by several parties to support their bids on PC side. Risk in doing this is we get less than optimal rights with geographic carve outs such as Japan and China (where EPL extremely popular)

Guys - checking on this, but I'm not aware of any existing method to pull this data and am checking with eng/data teams. There is little visibility on YT systems on clicks, analytics and stats... we are just getting to core stats like revenue, video playbacks etc so I would not expect this to be something that is possible in the short term. I will let you know what we have once I hear back.
