

1           (1)     Whether the Fourth Amendment was violated when, pursuant to a 2 warrant, the government seized and cloned three computer hard drives containing both 3 responsive and non-responsive files, retained the cloned hard drives for some two-and-4 a-half years, and then searched the non-responsive files pursuant to a subsequently 5 issued warrant; and

6           (2)     Considering all relevant factors, whether the government agents in this 7 case acted reasonably and in good faith such that the files obtained from the cloned 8 hard drives should not be suppressed.

9           Briefing is not restricted to the issues and arguments presented to the original 10 panel. We invite amicus curiae briefs from interested parties. Appellant's brief and 11 appendix, and any amicus curiae briefs in support thereof, shall be filed by July 29, 12 2015. Appellee's brief and appendix, and any amicus curiae briefs in support thereof, 13 shall be filed by August 28, 2015. The Appellant's reply brief shall be filed by September 14 11, 2015.

15           Oral argument will be held on September 30, 2015, at 3:30 p.m. at the Thurgood
16 Marshall United States Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, New York.
