Submitted: November 13, 2009 Decided: December 3, 2009

Tony DeLoach, Appellant Pro Se. Roy F. Laney, Heath McAlvin Stewart, III, RILEY, POPE & LANEY, LLC, Columbia, South Carolina, for Appellees.

Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

DeLoach appeals the district court's denying relief on his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (2006) complaint. district court referred this case to a magistrate judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) (2006). The magistrate judge recommended that relief be denied and advised DeLoach that timely file specific objections to recommendation could waive appellate review of a district court order based upon the recommendation. Despite this warning, DeLoach failed to timely file specific objections to magistrate judge's report and recommendation.

The timely filing of specific objections magistrate judge's recommendation is necessary to preserve appellate review of the substance of that recommendation when the parties have been warned of the consequences Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841, 845-46 (4th noncompliance. Cir. 1985); see also Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). DeLoach has waived appellate review by failing to timely file specific objections after receiving proper notice. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court.

We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
