Submitted: December 15, 2009 Decided: December 22, 2009

PER CURIAM:

Jenkins appeals the district court's Esau order denying relief on his civil action. The district court referred this magistrate judge pursuant 28 case to a to U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) (2006). The magistrate judge recommended that relief be denied and advised Jenkins that failure to file timely objections to this recommendation could waive appellate review of a district court order based upon the recommendation. Despite this warning, Jenkins failed to object to the magistrate judge's recommendation.

timely filing of specific objections The to а judge's recommendation is necessary to preserve magistrate appellate review of the substance of that recommendation when been parties have warned of the consequences the of Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841, noncompliance. 845-46 (4th Cir. 1985); see also Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985). Jenkins has waived appellate review by failing to timely file specific objections after receiving proper notice. Accordingly, we affirm the judgment of the district court.

We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
