PER CURIAM:

Homeowners Robert and Shirley Goss appeal the district court's orders dismissing their civil action against the servicer of their mortgage, in which the Gosses alleged various Maryland state law claims related to their request to participate in the Home Affordable Modification Program ("HAMP"), and denying their motion to reconsider that order. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. See Spaulding v. Wells Fargo Bank, 714 F.3d 769 (4th Cir. 2013). Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the district court. See Goss v. Bank of Am., No. 1:12-cv-02680-CCB (D. Md. Jan. 8, 2013; Feb. 7, 2013). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
