PER CURIAM:

Caroline Wanjiku Githua, a native and citizen of Kenya, petitions for review of an order of the Board of Immigration Appeals ("Board") dismissing her appeal from the immigration judge's denial of her requests for asylum, withholding of removal and withholding under the Convention Against Torture. We have thoroughly reviewed the record, including the transcript of Githua's hearing and her supporting evidence. We conclude that the record evidence does not compel a ruling contrary to the Board's dismissal and that substantial evidence supports the finding that Githua did not establish an objectively reasonable well founded fear of persecution. See 8 U.S.C. § 1252(b)(4)(B) (2012); INS v. Elias-Zacarias, 502 U.S. 478, 481 (1992).

Accordingly, we deny the petition for review. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
