PER CURIAM:

Melanie Wright appeals the district court's order dismissing her complaint with prejudice for failing to state a claim. Wright sought to challenge a state-administered foreclosure proceeding after defaulting on a mortgage that her father initially held on the contested property and later transferred to her. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. Accordingly, we affirm for the reasons stated by the district court. Wright v. Nationstar Mortg., LLC, No. 8:14-cv-03991-PJM (D. Md. Mar. 18, 2016). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
