Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Raymond Brown appeals the district court's order dismissing his complaint. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. The district court properly concluded that it lacked subject matter jurisdiction over Brown's claims. Accordingly, we affirm the district court's dismissal, see Brown v. U.S. Dep't of Justice, No. 8:16-cv-03541-PJM (D. Md. July 25, 2017), but we modify the dismissal to be without prejudice and affirm the dismissal as modified, 28 U.S.C. § 2106 (2012). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
