PER CURIAM:

Leonard L. Clay appeals the district court's order dismissing his civil action alleging employment discrimination in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Clay's informal brief does not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, Clay has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
