Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

William T. Hunter appeals the district court's order granting Defendants' motion to dismiss his complaint alleging several claims, including claims for employment discrimination, slander, and intentional infliction of emotional distress, as well as claims under the United States Constitution. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Hunter's informal brief does not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, Hunter has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
