Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Celeste G. Broughton seeks to appeal the district court's order denying her motions to reconsider several of the court's previous orders in Broughton's ongoing bankruptcy proceeding, and granting Broughton's request for an extension of time in which to seek reconsideration of other orders. This court may exercise jurisdiction only over final orders, 28 U.S.C. § 1291 (2012), and certain interlocutory and collateral orders, 28 U.S.C. § 1292 (2012); Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(b); Cohen v. Beneficial Indus. Loan Corp., 337 U.S. 541, 545-46 (1949). The order Broughton seeks to appeal is neither a final order nor an appealable interlocutory or collateral order. Accordingly, we dismiss the appeal for lack of jurisdiction and deny Broughton's motion to amend the caption. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
