Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Christopher Chin-Young appeals the district court's order granting Defendant's motions to dismiss for lack of jurisdiction and for summary judgment on Chin-Young's claims pertaining to his former federal employment. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because the informal brief does not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, Chin-Young has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. Chin-Young v. Esper, No. 1:19-cv-01253-AJT-IDD (E.D. Va. Feb. 10, 2020). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
