PER CURIAM:

Wayne D. Thompson appeals the district court's order denying his motion seeking a sentence modification under the First Step Act of 2018, Pub. L. No. 115-391, 132 Stat. 5194. We have reviewed the record and find no reversible error. See United States v. Jackson, 952 F.3d 492, 502 (4th Cir. 2020) ("Even assuming . . . that a district court in a First Step Act sentence reduction proceeding has equivalent duties to a court initially sentencing a defendant, . . . [w]e are satisfied that the district court considered the parties' arguments and had a reasoned basis for exercising its own legal decisionmaking authority." (internal quotation marks and brackets omitted)). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's order. United States v. Thompson, No. 3:08-cr-00309-REP-1 (E.D. Va. Dec. 10, 2019). We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
