MARIA PARISI,

Plaintiff-Appellant

v.

MICHAEL J ASTRUE,
COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant-Appellee

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth
USDC No. 4:07-cv-00711

Before BENAVIDES, PRADO, and SOUTHWICK, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

Maria Parisi, appellant, seeks review of the judgment of the United States District Court affirming the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security denying her claim for a period of disability and disability insurance benefits.

Parisi does not point to any specific error in the decision of the Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) dated February 22, 2007, which became the final decision of the Commissioner. The Appeals Council denied Parisi's request for administrative review. The ALJ decision hinged on its finding that Parisi was not disabled because she retained the residual functional capacity to perform her past relevant work. The ALJ decision is based on its conclusion at step four of the five-step sequential evaluation found in the Social Security regulations for assessing disability claims. See 20 C.F.R. § 404.1520.

Having reviewed the record and arguments presented in the briefs we are convinced the ALJ applied the proper legal standards in its analysis and that the decision that Parisi was not disabled under the Social Security Act is based on substantial evidence. Accordingly, we affirm the decision of the District Court upholding the decision of the Commissioner.

AFFIRMED.
