Before REAVLEY, JOLLY, and OWEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

This court is created by the United States Government and is given certain law and authority for that use, but we judges have no more authority than by laws of the United States we are given. Employing our authority we have examined the complaint and position of the appellant, Paul Benjamin Chuka Ayika, and find there no injury or harm prohibited by these laws. He has no standing to complain, if any harm is suggested. And no relief is set forth that this court has power to provide. No cause of action is stated.

Consequently, this court has no choice but to affirm the judgment of Judge Montalvo signed on November 30, 2009.

AFFIRMED.
