KEVIN STERLING,

Plaintiff-Appellant

v.

CITY OF NEW ROADS; COLUMBIA CASUALTY COMPANY,

Defendants-Appellees

Appeal from the United States District Court
For The Middle District of Louisiana
Civil Action No. 08-cv-424

Before REAVLEY, JOLLY, and OWEN, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM:*

The judgment of the district court is affirmed for this reason:

Mr. Sterling took leave from his employment with the City of New Roads pursuant to the Family Medical Leave Act. When his leave expired, Mr. Sterling did not furnish his employer with certification that he was able to resume work. Mr. Sterling's failure to provide the City with certification of his fitness for duty bars his action claiming entitlement to reinstatement under 29 U.S.C. § 2614(a). The district court correctly rendered judgment to this effect.

Mr. Sterling admitted in his deposition that he received notice advising him of his rights and obligations under COBRA. He deliberately elected not to continue COBRA coverage. No reasonable jury could conclude that Mr. Sterling received no communication from the City. The district court correctly rendered judgment that Mr. Sterling's claim regarding COBRA is meritless.

Judgment AFFIRMED.
