inadequate medical care. The district court denied Rogers's request for leave to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP) and dismissed the complaint because Rogers is subject to the three-strikes bar of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g). Rogers now moves this court for leave to proceed IFP on appeal.

The record shows and Rogers does not dispute that he has three strikes under § 1915(g); thus, to proceed IFP on appeal, he must show that he "is under imminent danger of serious physical injury." § 1915(g); see Adepegba v. Hammons, 103 F.3d 383, 388 (5th Cir. 1996). Rogers has not satisfied this standard.

Also pending are Rogers's requests for an injunction pending appeal and emergency medical release and motions requesting that the court take "judicial notice" of his deteriorating medical conditions and other matters, for an evidentiary hearing, and for the appointment of counsel. These motions are DENIED.

The motion for leave to proceed IFP on appeal is DENIED. The appeal is DISMISSED AS FRIVOLOUS. See Baugh v. Taylor, 117 F.3d 197, 202 & n.24 (5th Cir. 1997); 5TH CIR. R. 42.2.
