Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana
No. 2:19-CV-13323

Before HIGGINBOTHAM, HIGGINSON, and DUNCAN, Circuit Judges.

No. 21-30545

PER CURIAM:*

This Court lacks jurisdiction over the appeal because the rulings being appealed are not “final decisions” within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 1291, the Plaintiffs have not satisfied the procedural requirements necessary to take an interlocutory appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 1292, and the rulings being appealed do not fall within any recognized exception that would permit immediate appeal in a still pending case.¹ The appeal is DISMISSED.

* Pursuant to 5th Circuit Rule 47.5, the court has determined that this opinion should not be published and is not precedent except under the limited circumstances set forth in 5th Circuit Rule 47.5.4.
